The honesty rule

A night that doesn't reach its threshold simply rests: every guest is refunded in full, automatically, and nobody owes anybody. The app says it plainly: "Didn't come together."

THE WAY IT WORKS TODAY

The good stuff happens over the hill or sells out before you hear about it. Local ideas die in the group chat because nobody wants to front the risk.

What changes with XLNT

Back it, don't gamble on it

Put your seat behind a proposed gathering. Charged only if it launches; refunded automatically if it doesn't.

Vote what it becomes

Menus, setlists, themes — backers shape the moment before it locks.

Made by your neighbors

The chef is local, the band is local, the winery is down the road. Every event page shows who's making your evening.

WHY THIS IS DIFFERENT

Not another listing site

XLNT runs the whole night — the demand, the booking, and the money between — in one community app.

~~Ticket sites sell what exists~~

XLNT lets you create what doesn't — back it and it becomes real.

~~Fees appear at checkout~~

4%, published, shown before you back. No surprise line items.

~~Algorithms pick your feed~~

Your neighbors propose your options. No ads, no pay-to-rank, ever.

Demand before risk — for everyone

Gatherings launch only when enough neighbors have backed them. Hosts stop gambling; you never pay for a moment that doesn't happen.

Reputation that compounds locally

Every gathering adds verified reviews. The caterer you loved on Tuesday is easy to find for your own Friday.
